

How to start a ‘Hearts For North Korea Club’

Starting a Hearts For North Korea Club on a college campus can be a rewarding experience!

Here are some steps to help you get started:

1. Define the Purpose: Clearly outline the mission and goals of your club. What interests or needs will it address? Consider the following:
  - Pray for North Korea
  - Educate yourself – to be able to share with classmates
    - History, culture, current events, Juche, the underground Church
  - Gain knowledge or network with ministries focused on North Korea
2. Gauge Interest: Talk to your peers to see if there’s enough interest in your idea. You can use surveys or informal conversations.
3. Find an Advisor: Look for a faculty or staff member who can support and guide your club.
4. Register Your Club: Complete the necessary paperwork with your college’s student activities office. This often includes a registration form and a list of initial members.
5. Write a Constitution: Draft a document that outlines your club’s structure, rules, and procedures. This might include membership criteria, officer roles, and meeting schedules.
6. Recruit Members: Promote your club through social media, flyers, and campus events. Hosting an interest meeting can also help attract members.
7. Plan Activities: Organize events, meetings, and activities that align with your club’s goals. This could include guest speakers, workshops, or social gatherings.
8. Manage Finances: Create a budget and explore funding options. This might involve member dues, fundraising events, or applying for grants from your college<sup>12</sup>.

Starting a club can help you develop leadership skills, make new friends, and enhance your college experience. What kind of club are you thinking about starting?
